Information about Masiero Families in Brazil

These pages present some information about Masiero families in Brazil. I found around 300 italian immigrants having this family name, most of them coming to Brazil from the Veneto region, in Italy, during the 1870-1920 period. My ancestors are Luigi Masiero and Nadalina Conselvan, who emmigrated from Lissaro district, Mestrino, Padova, in 1888. They bought lands in the Bento Gonçalves region (link 1, link 2), in southern Brazil.

If you want to receive more specific information, or to give your contribution to this site, please contact me. You can write in english, french, italian, portuguese, or spanish.

Thanks!

Carlos.
